

The right location? Start your property search with us.

When it comes to finding the right location for your business, it's always better when you have the inside track. At Locate in Kent we can help you find the ideal location and premises for future success.

Our property experts work with businesses already here in Kent, those across the UK and overseas to understand what their commercial property needs are and with that knowledge guide them to the best location to grow their business.

WHAT WE OFFER

Locate in Kent hosts the county's largest online commercial property portal, giving you quick and in depth information on the latest commercial properties for sale and to lease across the region. The portal allows businesses to discover more about their target area with business data and socio-economic information overlaying your property search results.

You can also refine your search to reveal details about your potential workforce and skills information plus demographics, populations, wage levels, housing, infrastructure and education offer.

OUR SERVICE TO YOU

We will work with you to find the right location or property for your business with the help of our extensive local property knowledge. We offer guidance on a range of issues you may come across – from planning to inspiration for design and build options. Our team can also share details of off-market opportunities.

With connections to leading property developers, landowners and public sector partners you'll be amazed at what Locate in Kent can offer.
